NICOLAS PELLERIN AND CARMEN CAMPAGNE FEATURED IN THE TEEN SHOW

This year, two energetic bands will take part in the Great-West Life School Program. On February 12 and from February 16 to 19, Nicolas Pellerin et les Grands Hurlleurs will be performing at the Teen Show, an activity offered to students from grade 6 to 12. Nicolas Pellerin et les Grands Hurlleurs is one of the most popular francophone traditional music groups on Canadian and European stages since its inception. The trio released its newest album in November, which contains its share of surprises to the great delight of their fans. Carmen Campagne will also be performing during the School program, her concert will be offered to students from kindergarten to grade 5. For her 16th recording in her career, Carmen returns to her first love: her love for children and the joy that performing brings to her, the joy of composing songs that please the kids as much as it does their parents.

Festival du Voyageur is currently accepting reservations for the Great-West Life School Program until January 27, 2016. Offering diverse workshops and shows for more than 11 000 students every year, the 2016 Great-West Life School Program will be held from February 12 to 19, 2016.
