FESTIVAL DU VOYAGEUR ANNOUNCES FIRST ACTS OF ITS 2015 LINEUP

SAINT-BONIFACE, October 21, 2014 –Festival du Voyageur is proud to announce Elliott Brood will be performing at the 2015 Festival as part of their Western Canadian tour. The Ontarian trio will be in concert at Voyageur Park on February 21, 2015 for the 46th edition of Festival du Voyageur which will take place from February 13th to 22nd, 2015.

Creative, innovative and always reaching toward something different, between one another, the three gifted band members interactively share their vocals and instruments. This multi-talented group has become one of the premier acts in Canadian roots music.

BON DÉBARRAS AND ÇA CLAQUE! FEATURED IN THE TEEN SHOW

This year, two energetic bands will take part in the Great-West Life School Program. From February 17 to 20th, Bon Débarras will be performing at the Teen Show, an activity offered to students from grade 6 to 12. This folk band hailing from Quebec is deeply rooted in the memory of French-speaking America. By integrating jig, foot percussion and body percussion with the harmonic sounds of their guitars, banjo, mandolin, accordion, washboard and harmonicas, the trio creates musical atmospheres that transcend boundaries and ages. On February 13, Ça Claqué! will be performing at the Teen Show. This ensemble showcases Franco-Manitoban artists who share their love of French-Canadian folklore – traditional as well as contemporary – through music and dance.

Festival du Voyageur is currently accepting reservations for the Great-West Life School Program until January 28, 2015. Offering diverse workshops and shows for more than 12 000 students every year, the 2015 Great-West Life School Program will be held from February 13th to 20th, 2015.
