RADIO RADIO IN CONCERT AT FESTIVAL DU VOYAGEUR 2013

SAINT-BONIFACE, January 29th, 2013 – Festival du Voyageur is pleased to announce that the hip-hop group Radio Radio from Nova Scotia will be added to the list of artists performing at the 44th edition of the Festival. Radio Radio will be in concert for one night only, on Friday February 15th, 2013 at 11 pm in the Université de Saint-Boniface La Prairie Tent. This is one show you don't want to miss! Their latest work is a fusion of rap, acid house, blues and country creating a sound all their own that will make you dig down deep and let loose your inner groove demon.

Their first releases Télé Télé EP (2007) and Cliché Hot (2008), launched this hard working east-coast band that continue to impress journalists and public alike with their hip/hop electro-flavored catchy hooks. After being short-listed for the 2010 Polaris Music Prize for their second album, Belmundo Regal, the Acadian trio has won many awards, such as an Independent Music Award for Rap/Hip Hop Album (2011), a Miroir for Best Hip-Hop/Urban Performance at the Festival d'été de Québec, a Félix for Producer of the Year and a Révélation Musique 2010-2011 Radio-Canada title.

Following the great adventure that was Belmundo Regal, Radio Radio is back with a new album and a new tour: Havre de Grâce. Accompanied by a percussionist, a trumpeter and a keyboardist, the trio of rappers is coming back in force with a high-energy show like none other.
